A Guide to the Revised Betting, Integrity & Match Fixing Rules

This information sheet is to be retained by the registering Player for future reference.

For the 2014/2015 season, the Football Association of Wales (FAW) has revised its Rules with regards to Betting, Integrity and Match Fixing.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The Rules apply to all Match Officials and everyone connected to a Club or League in Wales.

Betting

You are not allowed to place any bets, or accept any bets, on any game within Wales.

If your club participates in a competition outside Wales, such as the UEFA Champions League for example, you are not allowed to place any bets, or accept any bets, on your own team. Neither must you bet, or accept any bet, on any other match in that competition even if your club is eliminated.

Match Fixing

You must not offer, or attempt to offer, any bribe or reward to anybody in order to influence the result, progress, conduct or any other aspect of any match. You must also not accept any such bribe or reward.

Whilst participating in a match, you must not fail to perform your duties or responsibilities to the best of your ability for any kind of reward.

Integrity

It will be an offence for you to fail to report to the FAW any approach from a person, organisation or third party if asked to influence the course and/or result of a match or competition in an unlawful or undue manner.

It will also be an offence for you to fail to report any information or behaviour involving any person, organisation or third party should you be aware of any activities aimed at influencing the course of a match or competition in an unlawful or undue manner.

You must never use or provide others with any information that is obtained through connections with people involved in the game, which damages, or could damage, the integrity of a match or competition.

Consequences

A breach of the FAW Betting, Integrity & Match Fixing Rules may result in a worldwide lifetime ban from football.
